Re: Task Force on Inventorying Employment Restrictions Act

Dear Sir:

The following is the report of the Civil Service Commission with regard to the above:

1. The Civil Service Commission does not have any restrictions for employment within the agency based on criminal records as contemplated by the Act.
2. The Civil Service Commission does not license any occupations or provide certifications to practice; does not license, regulate, supervise or fund any facilities; and does not employ pursuant to contract or provide certifications to practice as contemplated by the Act.
3. The Civil Service Commission has not caused any applicant to undergo a criminal background check. Therefore, there are none who were found disqualified, sought waiver, and were denied waiver.

Please contact the undersigned if you require any additional information.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Daniel Stralka", written over a horizontal line.
