

Workgroup Resources

American Bar Association Collateral Consequences of Conviction Web Site

The "National Inventory of the Collateral Consequences of Conviction" Web site is now available. Users can click on an interactive map to search (by jurisdiction) for restrictions by the triggering offense or by the type of consequence (such as employment, education, or housing). The site currently contains data for nine states and the federal government. (NIJ)