The Illinois Comprehensive Health Insurance Plan (CHIP) would like to submit the following information in accordance with the Task Force on Inventory Employment Restrictions Act.

CHIP is a State program, a quasi State Agency created by the CHIP Act [215 ILCS 105]. CHIP is operated under the supervision and control of a Board that has the authority to "employ and fix compensation of employees." [215 ILCS 105/4 i.] The CHIP board has not established any restrictions on employee hiring, including with regard to criminal records.

Sincerely,

Timothy C. Sullivan
Executive Director
