Office of the Secretary

BRENT E. ADAMS
Secretary

February 1, 2012

To whom it may concern:

The following is the report mandated by 20 ILCS 5000/15, for the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation.

The Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation (DFPR) is comprised of three Divisions, The Division of Professional Regulation (DPR), The Division of Financial Institutions (DFI), and The Division of Banking (DOB). Each Division holds a unique role in serving the citizens of The State of Illinois, but all three are unified in that they exist to administer and promulgate public acts in the licensing and regulation of professionals and businesses. The Department employs approximately 500 individuals in a multitude of different job positions.

The Division of Professional Regulation is responsible for administering 61 professional licensure acts. Administration of the licensure acts entails two key elements: 1) eligibility determination of applicants for licensure resulting in license issuance or denial, and 2) the enforcement of the licensure acts including investigating complaints received and prosecuting cases resulting in the imposition of discipline. There are 235 different professional licensure categories within the 61 professional licensure acts, 18 of these professions have a direct and critical impact upon the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of Illinois.

The Division of Financial Institutions regulates various state-licensed financial institutions to ensure their safety and soundness and works to protect consumers in their interactions with these entities. The division licenses, examines, and regulates all state-chartered credit unions, currency exchanges, consumer installment lenders, sales finance companies, title insurance companies, money transmitters, payday lenders, debt settlement companies, and debt management companies. The division also administers and enforces 11 statutes in the Illinois Financial Institutions Code and its attending rules and regulations.

The Division of Banking protects and educates the public and promotes confidence in the regulated industries through administration of statutory responsibilities. The Division oversees the regulation and licensure of State chartered banks, trust companies, ATMs not owned by financial institutions, check printers, pawnbrokers, savings banks and savings and loan associations, and mortgage bankers and brokers.

If you have any questions about this report, please contact John Lagattuta, IDFP Labor Relations Director, at (312)814-1692 or John.Lagattuta@Illinois.gov.

20 ILCS 5000/15(c) – November 1, 2011, FPR Report for the Task Force

(1) There are no restrictions for employment within the agency. There are 160 licenses and professions that the agency regulates that have some level of restriction based on criminal history. (See Attachment 1 Column A)

(2) (See Attachment 1 Column C)

(3) (See Attachment 1 Columns D – J)

(A) (See Attachment 1 Columns D – F)

(B) (See Attachment 1 Columns D, G – J)

(4) (See Attachment 1 Columns K-L)

(5, 6, & 7) (See Attachment 1 Columns M & N for details of each profession) For each license and profession the department regulates, there are standards for qualification. These standards include education, training, experience requirements, and other metrics pertinent to each individual license. These standards are declared in the more than 100 public acts that the agency promulgates. The agency also, by authority of public act, enforces the prevention of unlicensed practice in the State. The agency directly and intentionally impacts employment opportunities through restriction of rights to practice and become licensed in the State. Each of the restrictions placed on licensing, that affect an individual's possibility of employment, are intended to protect and promote public safety and the common good.

Some restrictions apply universally across all licenses and professions, while some restrictions are license, profession, or industry specific. In every act, there is a provision allowing the Department to refuse to issue or renew a license or grant a registration if an applicant has been convicted of any crime that is (i) a felony; or (ii) that is a misdemeanor, an essential element of which is dishonesty, or that is directly related to the practice of the profession. There is also a provision for refusal of issuance for engaging in dishonorable, unethical, or unprofessional conduct of a character likely to deceive, defraud, or harm the public. These provisions apply to every professional the department regulates. In a minority of examples, there are crimes that may act as an absolute bar to licensing, but for most every profession, the Department evaluates each case on an individual basis. The process (See Appendix 0) requires that applicants disclose their criminal history upon application. The circumstances of the history are evaluated and the Department renders a decision on whether or not the information provided disqualifies the individual from licensure, registration, or practice, as the case may be.

The subjective nature of the disqualification process is intentional and necessary. The Department is charged with the task of determining who is qualified to operate and represent themselves as professionals. The citizens of Illinois place their trust in the department, to ensure that, if a professional is licensed in Illinois, they are competent and fit for duty. The simple fact of knowing that a professional is licensed by the State, and seeing the indicia of said licensure, tells an Illinois consumer that they can trust that, to the extent of the requirements of the Illinois licensing acts, the professional is qualified and capable in their field, and that the professional warrants the public trust.

The Department evaluates all qualifications for licensure. Each profession has individual qualifications for licensure directly related to the skill of the profession. There are also qualifications common to some or all of the professions that relate to the professional's character and conduct. One commonality, among all professions, is that the citizens of Illinois, rightfully, expect professionals to be of good moral character, ethical in the practice of their professions, and worthy of the trust of the public and the clientele they serve. If any information about an applicant suggests that, if licensed in his or her desired profession, the applicant may be a danger to Illinois consumers, that information must be carefully analyzed and evaluated. A criminal history will always be pertinent to evaluating an applicant's qualifications, but, excepting a small number of specific situations (See Attachment 1 – PERC, Massage Therapist, and All Healthcare Workers), a criminal history does not act as an absolute bar to licensure.

The Department is acutely aware of and a direct proponent of the possibility of rehabilitation of a convicted criminal. The commission or conviction of a crime is only one part of the story for every individual. The Department does not speculate on the reasons or causes of an applicant's criminal history. The focus is on the nature of the offense and the applicant's progress and rehabilitation from the time of the offense to now. In evaluating the nature of an offense, subjectivity is essential. An applicant may carry a serious conviction as a result of a careless or youthful error, and another applicant may carry a lesser conviction as a result of a more serious and deliberate offense. Time having elapsed from the date of a conviction is rarely enough, on its own, to prove rehabilitation. However, an offense committed a long time ago, with no indication of continued criminal activity, would not have the same impact a more recent offense might. In many cases, the fact that an applicant is pursuing licensure or certification in a profession, speaks to the applicant's rehabilitation. Very few things demonstrate rehabilitation as matter-of-factly as pursuing change and stability in one's life. If an applicant carries a criminal conviction for a crime that operating in the profession sought would not encourage or facilitate, issuing the applicant a license, despite a criminal history, may in fact protect and promote the lives of Illinois consumers by allowing the applicant to transition away from a life of crime, toward employment as a professional.

Past practice can be a sound indicator of future action. If there is nothing that suggests an applicant has been rehabilitated, or worse, indication that the applicant may be pursuing licensure with criminal intent or motives, the Department must have the authority, legal basis, and a procedure to investigate the history and actions of the applicant. In the interest of protecting the consumer, the Department must decide, with due process and consideration for the applicant, if the applicant is qualified and fit for licensure. In the event that the applicant is not qualified or does not warrant the trust of the Illinois consumer, the Department must have the capability to refuse licensure and enforce the laws governing unlicensed practice.

(8) None directly established.

(9) (A, B, C, & D) See Appendices

These numbers are based on reports pulled from the FPR licensing database. The numbers of applicants for each license may not represent the total number that actually applied, only the entries that were properly tagged as "application". The number of applicants disqualified should be accurate, and the total number of applicants, if inaccurate, will be low, so the percentage of individuals disqualified will be an over estimate. All other data is not currently tracked.

The Life Cycle of Licensure through IDFPR:

Application

- Potential licensee completes requirements for licensure
- Individual submits application to the Department on official application forms (See Appendix 1a). Each application is different, but all contain the same information form.
 - Application requires disclosure of criminal history and personal history
 - Disclosure of arrest records and criminal convictions (See Appendix 1b)
 - Disclosure of mental health and physical problems
 - Some applications require fingerprint for criminal records search (See Appendix 1c)

Investigation & Review

- If applicant indicates a history of criminal conviction, if a fingerprint search returns a record of criminal conviction, or if a criminal conviction is reported on a licensee, the file is routed to the Prosecutions Unit. If there is no relevant conviction, the license will be issued per the other rules.
 - Chief of prosecutions reviews the entire file, evaluating the on the grounds of seriousness and nature of the offense, relation to the desired license, time elapsed since the offense, actions and activities since the offense, whether or not the applicant honestly disclosed the offense, and whether the offense is part of a pattern of continued criminal activity or an isolated event. Chief of prosecutions then decides to allow the issuance of the license, or to issue an Intent to Deny (ITD) letter to the applicant (See Appendix 2a). If the applicant is already licensed, an Intent to Refuse to Renew (ITRTR) letter would be sent (See Appendix 2b).

Petition

- Applicant has 30 days to respond to the ITD to contest the denial and petition to be heard via a Petition for Hearing (See Appendix 3a). If the Petitioner had previously been licensed, the petition would be a Petition for Restoration (See Appendix 3b).
 - Petitioner schedules a conference/hearing with the Department and is given an opportunity to explain their case and to provide additional information or to answer questions the Department may have.
 - Prosecution unit decides, after reviewing the new information gained through the conference, whether to issue the license or to proceed to a hearing before an administrative law judge (ALJ).
 - Petitioner and Department may mutually agree on an appropriate course of action and enter an agreement by signing a consent order. A consent order becomes final once signed and the case is completed.

Hearing

- If the case proceeds to a hearing before an ALJ, the Department conducts a hearing per the Administrative Hearing Procedure Act (See Appendix 4).
 - Once the hearing procedure is complete, the ALJ submits his or her Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Recommendations to the Board, to the applicable professional board. Boards are composed, generally, of professionals licensed in the fields their boards cover.
 - The board reviews the ALJ report and transcripts of the proceedings, and prepares a report to the Director of the Department conferring their Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Recommendations to the Director.
- Upon submission of the Board Report to the Director, the Department issues a 20-Day Notice (See Appendix 5) to the petitioner. The 20-Day Notice consists of a form-letter cover page, the ALJ Report, and the Board Report.

- The petitioner has 20 days from the mailing date of the notice to submit a motion for rehearing to the Department.
- If the motion for rehearing is granted, the hearing procedure starts over

Director's Order

- If a motion for rehearing is denied or if no motion is received in the 20-day period, the Director will review the reports from the Board and the ALJ and issue an order on the action to be taken for the petitioner's application (See Appendix 6).
 - If the order denies the petition for licensure, the petitioner may request an Administrative Review, per the Administrative Review Law. Each licensing act provides for judicial review and generally establishes a venue for said review.

Going Forward

If the petitioner desires to pursue licensure again, he or she may submit a new application for licensure at any time after the final order.

- b) Upon a showing that a witness was called in good faith, and that the party calling him is surprised by his testimony, examination of the witness may proceed as if under cross-examination, and the testimony of the witness may be impeached by prior statements, or otherwise.

Section 1110.240 Committee Reports

- a) In every contested case, the Committee will file a written report which contains its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law with respect to the allegations contained in the Complaint or Petition for Hearing, and its Recommendation to the Director.
- b) In a case instituted by the Department, the recommendation to the Director may be:
 - 1) That a license not be issued;
 - 2) That a license not be renewed;
 - 3) That a license be issued;
 - 4) That a license be renewed;
 - 5) That a license be issued or renewed subject to discipline;
 - 6) That a license be disciplined; or

- c) Where the recommendation is for discipline, the Committee will include its specific recommendation as to type and duration.
- d) In any case in which a special committee is designated, the report prepared by the special committee will have the same force and effect as a report prepared by a Committee.
- e) In any case in which a Committee is unable to agree on a Recommendation to the Director, the Director may instruct the individual members to make recommendations, and thirty days thereafter may take such action as is otherwise authorized by statute upon the action and report in writing of the Committee.
- f) The Committee may request that any hearing officer, any Department attorney, or any attorney representing the Petitioner or Respondent assist in preparing a draft Committee Report for its consideration.
- g) When a Committee forwards its report to the Director, all parties will receive Notice. Within twenty days after such report is forwarded, either party may request that a rehearing, or additional hearings, be ordered by the Director. A rehearing shall be ordered by the Director when the Director determines that substantial justice has not been done.
- h) When a Committee is unable to agree on a recommendation, all parties will receive Notice of the date on which individual members are requested to file recommendations. When any member forwards such a recommendation, all parties will receive Notice, and may request a rehearing or additional hearings within twenty days of the date on which the first such recommendation is forwarded; if no recommendation is made, the request will be made within thirty days of the date instructions are given to file individual recommendations.
- i) Any member of any Committee may join the Committee in its Recommendation to the Director, or may file a separate dissenting or concurring report at any time, whether or not such individual report is requested by the Director.
- j) Where a rehearing, or additional hearings are requested, the request shall be in the form of a motion, and shall state with specificity the reasons for the request. If it is alleged that new evidence is available which was not available at the time of the hearing, the affidavit shall describe the new evidence, and reasons why it was not available for use at the hearing.
- k) Where a Committee or hearing officer grants any motion which would dispose of the case, it shall first afford the parties an opportunity to cure the defects in pleading or proof, and the ruling will be construed as a recommendation, rather than as a final agency decision; in such a case a Committee Report setting forth the ruling, the reasons therefore, and the effect of the ruling will be forwarded to the Director.

Section 1110.250 Severability

If any Section, subdivision, sentence or clause of this Part shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such holding shall not affect the remaining parts thereof.

Section 1110.270 Variances

The Director may grant a variance from these rules in a particular case where he finds that:

- 1) The provision from which the variance is granted is not statutorily mandated;
 - 2) No party will be injured by the granting of the variance;
 - 3) The rule from which the variance is granted would, in the particular case, be unreasonable or unnecessarily burdensome.
- b) The Director shall notify the appropriate Committee of the granting of such variance, and the reasons
